Levels These definitions are not to be used as a basis for referral or assessment, but only in providing general information about programs.

Basic Literacy: For learners with very limited reading and /or writing skills in their own language. Speak limited English, if at all.

Beginner: For learners with limited vocabulary and speaking ability. Understand a limited amount of English, usually with the help of gestures. Able to recognize high frequency words and/or able to read individual short simple sentences. Able to copy letters and numbers accurately. May also be able to provide basic personal information about oneself in writing.

Intermediate: Learners can usually function within a known framework. Can comprehend instructions, questions spoken at a normal pace and complete simple writing tasks, although not always accurately. Can comprehend short passages on familiar topics.

Advanced: Learners are able to produce and comprehend longer stretches of "connected discourse" (speech or text), with reasonable fluency and in a wider range of contexts, including more abstract topics. They show the ability to initiate, sustain and control the direction of conversation, and to clarify, paraphrase and effectively self-correct when needed.

Levels are also labelled in different manners for different institutions; some using numbers, while others letters. Generally the lower numbers and letters signify lower levels of difficulty, while higher numbers and letters signify more advanced programs. Interpretations of the various levels may vary from one organization to another. Levels are currently being standardized with Canadian Language Benchmarks throughout the province.

Definitions of ESL streams

LINC (Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada)

A free federally-funded language training program for immigrants and refugees over 17 years of age who are non-Canadian citizens. In order to qualify, students must be assessed at English levels ranging from Pre-LINC to LINC 4. Priority is given to those who have been in Canada less than three years. Students are eligible for 40 weeks or a maximum of 1,250 hours of full-time language training and an unlimited amount of part-time language training hours until the completion of LINC level 4. This program consists of language training, life skills and orientation to the community and Canadian culture.

* Students are assessed for general and linguistic eligibility and referred to LINC programs by the Language Assessment, Referral and Counselling Centre (LARCC), a service of Catholic Social Services.

General ESL

ESL classes which focus on all four aspects of language (reading, writing, listening and speaking) for basic to advanced level ESL students. These classes are primarily non-academic (with the exception of more advanced levels) and are fee-based.

Academic Bridging/Upgrading

Programs which assist/bridge ESL students toward post-secondary educational programs. They usually focus on developing specific skills and knowledge in one or more areas such as math, biology, English, literature, etc. Courses may be offered through classroom instruction, self-paced programming and computer assisted learning. The instruction is usually based on a contract between an ESL service provider and the employer.
